

The Sailors' Path follows a beautiful route between Snape Maltings and Aldeburgh.

The Path is named because sailors would walk the path between Aldeburgh and Snape.

Two shorter routes in this Guide explore Snape Warren and the marshes and village of Snape.

Highlights

1 Snape Maltings rises above its surroundings like a great ship. Local businessman Newson Garrett built the Maltings in stages from 1846. The railway arrived in 1859 ensuring that the Maltings remained a viable business until it closed in 1965. The Aldeburgh Music Festival was established in 1948. In 1967 The Maltings was converted into a concert hall.

Snape Maltings has, since, become an internationally famous venue for music and the performing arts. As well as the concert hall the Maltings offers shops, places to eat and boat trips along the River Alde.

2 The River Alde has one of the most beautiful estuaries on the east coast. The river flows through wide marshes and low hills under a huge Suffolk sky. In the past barges transported goods to and from Snape Maltings. The barges that are moored at Snape today are used for pleasure trips.

3 Snape Marshes are managed by Suffolk Wildlife Trust. They are a vital wildlife habitat, combining marsh, reedbed and wet woodland. The freshwater dykes are home to otter and many kinds of insects and plants. The marshes are grazed by cattle to create the right conditions for wildlife.

4 Snape Warren Nature Reserve is an area of heathland, grassland and scrub managed by the RSPB. It provides a habitat for many birds, including nightjar, woodlark and yellowhammer. The higher parts of the Reserve give panoramic views across the Alde estuary.

5 The coastal town of Aldeburgh is a popular place for holidays and day trips. In medieval times the town had a successful shipbuilding industry. Fishing has also played an important role in the town's economy. Aldeburgh still has a small fishing fleet and fresh fish can be bought from huts on the beach.

One of Aldeburgh's distinctive buildings is the timber framed Moot Hall. The Hall dates from the 1500s and was built as a marketplace and meeting room. Aldeburgh has attracted writers, artists and musicians.

Writers Wilkie Collins and Edward FitzGerald knew the town well. Aldeburgh Festival founders Benjamin Britten and Peter Pears lived in the Red House. Another resident was the poet George Crabbe, born in 1754. His poem, 'The Borough', was inspired by the town and its fishermen. It became the basis for Benjamin Britten's opera 'Peter Grimes'.

The Sailors' Path

Terrain:

Well-surfaced paths and tracks. Includes section beside busy road and road crossings. Take great care. We recommend high visibility clothing.

Leave Snape Maltings, turning right directly after bridge. Here you pick up signs for the Sailors' Path, which guide you all the way to Aldeburgh. Follow the posts and waymarking with the ship icon (pictured).

On reaching the main Aldeburgh road, follow Footpath to the right. Pass the entrance to Aldeburgh Golf Club (which is on other side of road). Follow road into Aldeburgh.

Distance:
6 miles (9.5 km)

Time:
2 hours 30 mins

Views across the Heather

Terrain:

Mostly well-made paths and tracks. Return path from Snape Warren floods at very high tides.

Follow the Sailors' Path route from the Maltings towards Aldeburgh, until you reach the small Snape Warren car park. Turn sharp right along a tarmacked lane, signposted 'Aldeburgh'.

Distance:
3.5 miles (5.5 km)

Time:
1 hour 45 mins

Pass cottages and continue on track beside heathland and woodland, past a wooden kissing gate to a metal kissing gate on right. Go through gate into Snape Warren. Red markerposts will guide you across the warren.

Cross track and go straight ahead. Path follows wire fence. The marker posts lead through kissing gates and across a lane before entering woodland, meeting a well-trodden path. Turn left.

Pass through gate to leave Snape Warren.

Turn right to follow the edge of the saltmarsh. The footpath provides fine views of the River Alde and Iken Church. Soon after entering woodland, rejoin the path back to Snape Maltings.

Snape Stroll

Terrain:

Mostly well-made paths and tracks, some sections on minor roads and pavements. Take great care.

Follow the Sailors' Path to Snape Warren woods.

When you enter the woodland, turn left. At next junction, take path to left to walk along the edge of marshes. At end of path turn right along track.

If path is very muddy, retrace to previous path. Turn left to reach the road and turn left. Walk along road to village to re-join the route.

Turn left into Snape village. Cross straight over the main road to continue the lane between houses and hedges. Just before a flint walled cottage, take the path left into open countryside.

Follow straight path to track and turn left. Continue on track to main road, turn right. Return to the Maltings.

Distance:
2.5 miles (4 km)

Time:
1 hour
